

SB 5921 - DIGEST

(SUBSTITUTED FOR - SEE 1ST SUB)

Requires the Washington technology center to contract with an advocacy organization that has a focus on emerging clean energy, green technology, and environmental technologies and that collaborates with business and economic development interests, to create a clean energy collaborative to provide a forum for public and private cooperative initiatives to promote and strengthen clean energy clusters and living wage jobs in Washington state and the Pacific Northwest.