

SB 6042 - DIGEST

Requires the department of health, within available funds, to provide a toll-free phone number to be listed in the government section of all phone books distributed to the public at large for use by state residents to report a concern about a particular food product that appears contaminated, suspicious, or tampered with.