

SB 6174 - DIGEST

Provides that records, materials, and other information that reveal, or could reasonably lead to discovery of, the identity of persons who directly participate in an execution under RCW 10.95.180, and the physician who pronounces death are: (1) Confidential and privileged;

(2) Not subject to public disclosure under the public records act; and

(3) Not subject to subpoena or discovery in a civil case.

Provides that the act applies retroactively, as well as prospectively, to all past and future executions.
