

SB 6787 - DIGEST

Addresses pretrial detention of the accused who may receive a life sentence or face a charge of a capital offense.

Takes effect January 1, 2011, upon approval of the voters at the next general election of the proposed amendment to Article I, section 20 of the state Constitution providing that offenses that may result in a mandatory life sentence upon conviction are not bailable by sufficient sureties.