EFFECT: Removes the intent section; changes the fair market value of an electioneering communication to $3,000; clarifies that a sponsor for purposes of a political committee does not include a bona fide political party; removes the requirement that a person may sponsor only one political committee for the same elected office or same ballot measure per election cycle; restores the dollar threshold for electronic filing to current law; removes the criminal penalties; and removes the increase in the penalty amount that the public disclosure commission may assess.
