Background:

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

The Economic and Revenue Forecast Council (ERFC) is an independent agency responsible for providing the state economic and revenue forecasts. Four times each year the ERFC must prepare an official state economic and revenue forecast. The forecasts are submitted to the Governor and Legislature on or before November 20, February 20 in even numbered years, March 20 in odd numbered years, June 20 and September 20.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

The submittal dates for the June and September economic and revenue forecasts are moved from the twentieth to the twenty-seventh day of the month.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect on October 1, 2012.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) The Governor's budget is due in December of each year, and moving the November 20 forecast back one week would result in less time to incorporate the forecast into the budget proposal.

(With concerns) The forecast is measuring the wrong things.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: (In support) Representative Orcutt, prime sponsor; and Julie Murray, Office of Financial Management.

(With concerns) Yoshe Revelle.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
