Background:

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

The Secretary of Health (Secretary) has regulatory authority for mental health counselors, marriage and family therapists, and social workers. The Secretary establishes licensing, education, and examination standards; issues licenses; and serves as the disciplining authority in cases regarding unprofessional conduct involving these professions.

The Secretary and the 15 health professions boards and commissions may adopt rules to authorize the issuance of retired active credentials to health care providers who only practice in emergent or intermittent circumstances. The Secretary's rules for retired active credentials require that the applicant hold an active credential in good standing and either not practice for more than 90 days per year or only practice in emergency situations. An applicant for a retired active credential must meet any continuing education or continuing competency requirements associated with the profession. Retired active credential holders are charged a reduced renewal fee.

Summary of Amended Bill:

The Secretary of Health is directed to adopt rules to issue retired active licenses to mental health counselors, marriage and family therapists, advanced social workers, and independent clinical social workers.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date of Amended Bill: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of the session in which the bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) Mental health professionals would like to be able to help in disaster situations. This bill is simply trying to use retired mental health professionals as resources. The Department of Health has been reluctant to adopt a retired active credential because of the current moratorium on rulemaking.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: Senator Conway, prime sponsor.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
