SENATE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

Staff: Aldo Melchiori (786-7439)

Background: A police dog is a dog used by a law enforcement agency specially trained for law enforcement work and under the control of a dog handler.

A person is guilty of harming a police dog, accelerant detection dog, or police horse if the person maliciously injures, disables, shoots, or kills a dog or horse that the person knows or has reason to know is a police dog or horse. The dog or horse does not have to be engaged in police work at the time. Harming a police dog, accelerant dog, or horse is an unranked class C felony offense. The maximum sentence for unranked felonies is one year of confinement and/or up to a $10,000 fine.

A dog owner is liable for any damages that a victim may sustain from a dog bite, regardless of the former viciousness of the dog or the dog owner's knowledge of such viciousness.

Summary of Bill: In addition to any criminal penalties, the court may impose a civil penalty of $5,000 for harming a police dog or $10,000 for killing a police dog. The fines imposed may not be reversed. Any money collected from the fines must be distributed to the jurisdiction that owns the police dog.

Police dogs are exempt from the statutory provisions that make a police dog owner liable for damages that a victim may sustain from a police dog bite.

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Committee/Commission/Task Force Created: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: Clark County has had two dogs killed on duty. The costs of obtaining and training these dogs is considerable. The dogs typically come from Europe because they have higher breeding standards. These dogs are law enforcement officers. We should be concerned about frivolous lawsuits brought against police dog owners by convicts.

Persons Testifying: PRO: Representative Rivers, prime sponsor; Lee Reaves, Deputy Brian Ellithorpe, WACOPS.
