SB 5788

---

As of February 17, 2011

Title: An act relating to the omnibus liquor act.

Brief Description: Concerning the omnibus liquor act.

Sponsors: Senators Conway, Hewitt, Kohl-Welles and King.

Brief History:

Committee Activity: Labor, Commerce & Consumer Protection: 2/17/11.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON LABOR, COMMERCE & CONSUMER PROTECTION

Staff: Edith Rice (786-7444)

Background: Liquor industry members and retailers are prohibited from advancing or receiving monies or monies worth by agreement or through a business practice or arrangement.

Liquor industry members are permitted to provide retailers with branded promotional items of nominal value, consistent with the retailers license, imprinted with advertising of the industry member only, only to retailers or their employees, and cannot be targeted to or appeal principally to youth.

Liquor industry members can enter into an arrangement with a holder of a sports entertainment facility license or an affiliated business for brand advertising at the facility or promoting events at the sports entertainment facility.

Liquor manufacturers, importers, and distributors can apply for a special permit to serve liquor without charge to delegates and guests at a convention or trade association composed of board licensees, when the liquor is served in a hospitality room or a board approved suppliers' display room during the convention.

A license is required for any person to solicit, receive, or take orders for the purchase or sale of liquor.

Summary of Bill: Special occasion licensees are permitted to pay for beer or wine immediately after the event. Wineries and breweries participating in a special occasion event can pay reasonable booth fees to the special occasion licensee.

Professional sports teams holding a retail liquor license can accept liquor advertising for use in the sporting arena. Professional sports teams holding a retail liquor license may license the manufacturer, importer, or distributor to use the name or trademarks of the professional sports team in their advertising and promotions. However, the advertising must be paid for at the published advertising rate or a reasonable fair market value and the advertising cannot carry with it any offer or promise to stock or list any particular brand of liquor to the exclusion of any other brand.

Special permits can be issued to a vendor that manufactures liquor mixers to serve liquor without charge to delegates and guests at a convention or trade association composed of board licensees, when the liquor is served in a hospitality room or a board approved suppliers' display room during the convention.

Drivers who deliver beer or wine and domestic wineries and their employees are not required to be the accredited representative of a certificate of approval holder, or hold a beer or wine distributor's license, a domestic brewers license, a beer or wine importer's license, a winery license, or be an accredited representative of a distiller, manufacturer, importer, or distributor of spirituous liquor or foreign produced beer or wine.

A restaurant with a spirits, beer, and wine restaurant license and which has an endorsement to sell malt liquor in kegs can sell beer under that same endorsement to a purchaser who provides their own container or is furnished one by the licensee. The container is filled at the tap at the time of sale.

A hotel license which authorizes the licensee to sell spirits, beer, and wine for on premises consumption including honor bars and through room service, can also sell beer to a purchaser who provides their own container or is furnished one by the licensee. The container is filled at the tap in the restaurant area at the time of sale.
