
SENATE BILL 6060

State of Washington

62nd Legislature

2012 Regular Session

By Senators Keiser, King, Kline, Honeyford, Kohl-Welles, Schoesler, and Holmquist Newbry

Read first time 01/10/12. Referred to Committee on Labor, Commerce & Consumer Protection.

1 AN ACT Relating to allowing day spas to offer or supply without 2 charge wine or beer by the individual glass to a customer for 3 consumption on the premises; and amending RCW 66.12.240.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 66.12.240 and 2009 c 361 s 1 are each amended to read 6 as follows:

7 (1) Nothing in this title applies to or prevents a day spa, wedding
8 boutique, or art gallery from offering or supplying without charge wine 9 or beer by the individual glass to a customer for consumption on the 10 premises. However, the customer must be at least twenty-one years of 11 age and may only be offered one glass of wine or beer, and wine or beer
12 served or consumed shall be purchased from a Washington state licensed
13 retailer or a Washington state liquor store or agency at full retail 14 price. A day spa, wedding boutique, or art gallery offering wine or 15 beer without charge may not advertise the service of complimentary wine 16 or beer and may not sell wine or beer in any manner. If the wine or 17 beer is offered by a day spa that provides massages, the wine or beer 18 may not be offered to the customers until the massage is completed.

1 Any employee involved in the service of wine or beer must complete a
2 board-approved limited alcohol server training program.

3 (2) For the purposes of this section:

4 (a) "Day spa" means a business that offers at least three of the 5 following beauty services: Shampooing, cutting, styling, or dyeing
6 hair, manicures, pedicures, facials, massages, and the use of body
7 toning equipment.

8 (b) "Art gallery" means a room or building devoted to the 9 exhibition and/or sale of the works of art.

10 ((+b+)) (c) "Wedding boutique" means a business primarily engaged 11 in the sale of wedding merchandise.
