

HB 1130 - DIGEST

Removes the duty of a midwife to consult with a physician if there are certain deviations from normal in the mother or the infant.

Requires a midwife to develop a written plan for each patient following the initial patient assessment and before the commencement of a regular program of midwifery services.