

HB 1711 - DIGEST

Grants public utility districts the authority to provide retail telecommunications services, including broadband, with the expectation that these services will be subject to the same telecommunications taxes, fees, and surcharges that are applicable to other telecommunications providers in the state.