

HB 1767 - DIGEST

Revises provisions relating to the licensing of private security guards.

Requires the department of licensing to develop a Washington state private security training manual and a required curriculum for refresher training.