

HB 2120 - DIGEST

Requires the utilities and transportation commission and the department of commerce to jointly select a consultant located within the state to conduct an analysis of the energy independence act and the treatment of hydroelectric power as an eligible renewable resource.