

HB 2268 - DIGEST

Requires the state board of education to establish as a high school graduation requirement that students complete at least one-half credit in financial literacy.