

HB 2411 - DIGEST

Focuses state high school graduation requirements on the core, foundational knowledge and skills that support career and college readiness, and leave decisions about additional requirements and course selection to local communities, parents, and students.