

HB 2526 - DIGEST

Requires collective bargaining sessions with certain employee organizations to be conducted as open public meetings.

Exempts from disclosure under the public records act, records before and during the course of any collective bargaining, labor negotiations, or grievance or mediation proceedings that would reveal the strategy or position being taken by an agency.