

HB 2750 - DIGEST

Requires electrical companies to provide an annual report to the utilities and transportation commission concerning electricity provided by the company, from coal power plants owned in whole or in part by the company, to one or more retail electric customers.