

SB 5725 - DIGEST

Requires the office of the superintendent of public instruction to create a pilot program and identify two school districts in which to implement science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) teacher certification.

Requires the professional educator standards board to review the pilot program.

Expires December 31, 2014.