

SB 5744 - DIGEST

Provides the construction industry and local communities with assurance that code officials have access to current training on the most recent code updates.

Imposes a fee of four dollars on each building permit issued by a county or a city.

Requires revenue from the fee to be appropriated to the department of labor and industries for distribution to the sponsor of an apprenticeship program for building officials.

Creates the code officials apprenticeship and training account.