

SB 6398 - DIGEST

Requires the state to actively develop innovative policy tools that support and encourage energy conservation efforts to achieve the goal identified by the Northwest power and conservation council of obtaining eighty percent of the region's future energy needs through 2030 with energy conservation.