8 Correct the title.

EFFECT: (1) Removes the provision that permits the Director of the Department of Licensing to deny a license under Chapter 46.96 RCW, which governs manufacturer and new motor vehicle dealer franchise agreements, where the Director finds that the issuance of the new license would cause a manufacturer or a manufacturer's representative to be in violation of the terms of Chapter 46.96 RCW.

(2) Removes the section which states that the provisions of the act apply both retroactively and prospectively to all franchises and contracts between manufacturers and new motor vehicle dealers that are in existence on the effective date of the act, or that are amended, renewed, or entered into after the effective date of the act.
