1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the 2 following:

3 "Sec. 1. RCW 26.33.345 and 1993 c 81 s 3 are each amended to read 4 as follows:

5 (1) The department of social and health services, adoption
6 agencies, and independent adoption facilitators shall release the name 7 and location of the court where a relinquishment of parental rights or 8 finalization of an adoption took place to an adult adoptee, a birth
9 parent of an adult adoptee, an adoptive parent, a birth or adoptive
10 grandparent of an adult adoptee, or an adult sibling of an adult 11 adoptee, or the legal guardian of any of these.

12 (2) The department of health shall make available a noncertified
13 copy of the original birth certificate of a child to the child's birth 14 parents upon request.

15 (3)(a) For adoptions finalized after October 1, 1993, the 16 department of health shall make available a noncertified copy of the 17 original birth certificate to (~~the adoptee after the adoptee's~~ 18 ~~eighteenth birthday unless the birth parent has filed an affidavit of~~ 19 nondisclosure) an adopted person eighteen years of age or older upon 20 request, unless the birth parent has filed an affidavit of 21 nondisclosure filed before the effective date of this section or a 22 contact preference form that indicates he or she prefers not to be 23 contacted.

24 (b) For adoptions finalized on or before October 1, 1993, the 25 department of health may not make available the original birth 26 certificate to the adopted person for inspection or copying until after 27 June 30, 2014. After June 30, 2014, the department of health shall 28 make available a noncertified copy of the original birth certificate to 29 an adopted person eighteen years or older upon request, unless the

1 birth parent has filed a contact preference form that indicates he or 2 she prefers not to be contacted.

3 (4)(a) Regardless of whether a birth parent has filed an affidavit
4 of nondisclosure or when the adoption was finalized, a birth parent may 5 at any time complete a contact preference form stating his or her 6 preference about personal contact with the adopted person, which, if 7 available, must accompany a birth certificate issued under subsection 8 (3) of this section.

9 (b) The contact preference form must include the following options:

10 (i) I would like to be contacted;

11 (ii) I would like to be contacted only through a confidential
12 intermediary as described in RCW 26.33.343; and

13 (iii) I prefer not to be contacted and have also completed the 14 birth parent updated medical history form.

15 (c) If the birth parent indicates he or she prefers not to be 16 contacted, personally identifying information on the contact preference 17 form must be kept confidential and may not be released.

18 (5) If a birth parent files a contact preference form, the birth 19 parent must also file a medical history form with the department of 20 health. Upon request of the adopted person, the department of health 21 must provide the adoptee with the medical history form filed by the 22 adoptee's birth parent.

23 (6) Both a completed contact preference form and birth parent
24 updated medical history form are confidential and must be placed in a 25 secure file until a match with the adopted person's file is made. Once 26 a match is made, the forms must be placed in the adopted person's 27 sealed file.

28 (7) If the contact preference form is filed within six months of 29 the first time an adopted person requests a copy of his or her original 30 birth certificate as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the 31 department of health must forward the form to the address of the 32 adopted person. If applicable, the department of health must also 33 forward the birth parent updated medical history form to the address of 34 the adopted person.

35 (8) The department of health may charge a fee not to exceed twenty 36 dollars for providing a noncertified copy of a birth certificate to an 37 adoptee.

1 (9) The department of health must create the contact preference
2 form and medical history form. The contact preference form must 3 provide a method to ensure personally identifying information can be 4 kept confidential. The medical history form may not require the birth 5 parent to disclose any identifying information about the birth parent."

6 On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "finalization;" strike the 7 remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 26.33.345."

EFFECT: Maintains current law regarding access to birth records for adoptions finalized after October 1, 1993, but prior to June 30, 2014.

After June 30, 2014, all adoptees will be able to access noncertified copies of their original birth records unless the birth parent has filed an affidavit of nondisclosure before the effective date of this act or contact preference form stating that they do not want to be contacted.

Modifies an option on the contact preference form.

States that a contact preference form can be filed at any time, regardless of the date of the adoptions.

If a birth parent files a contact preference form, the birth parent must also file a medical history form.

The medical history form must be provided to the adoptee upon request.

The department of health must create a contact preference form and medical history form. The affidavit of nondisclosure form must have the birth parent's social security number.
