EFFECT: Provides that if JLARC finds that there has been 10% increase of high tech R&D jobs in Washington, then JLARC will recommend extending the tax incentives.

Provides that a credit cannot be assigned to persons domiciled outside of Washington or for persons conducting R&D outside of Washington.

Provides that qualifying R&D expenditures include "qualifying wages" which are defined as full time persons performing R&D, and that employees performing R&D hired after the effective date of this act must be residents of Washington state.
