HB 1203

Brief Description: Exempting personal information relating to children from public inspection and copying.

Sponsors: Representatives Farrell, Lytton, Kagi, Freeman, Walsh, Ryu, Reykdal, Morrell, Jinkins, Bergquist and Ormsby; by request of Department of Early Learning.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Removes specified personal information from list of exempted material in certain files;
- Exempts personal information contained in child care and early learning records from public disclosure.

Hearing Date: 1/23/13

Staff: Marsha Reilly (786-7135).

Background:

The Public Records Act (PRA) requires that all state and local government agencies make all public records available for public inspection and copying unless they fall within certain statutory exemptions. The provisions requiring public records disclosure must be interpreted liberally and the exemptions narrowly in order to effectuate a general policy favoring disclosure.

Prior to July 1, 2006, the Department of Early Learning (DEL) existed within the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) as the Division of Child Care and Early Learning. At that time, personal information (i.e. welfare or medical status) contained in child care and early learning records had been protected under DSHS statutes regarding confidential records. When the DEL became an independent agency, the confidentiality protections afforded to individuals whose personal information is documented in child care and early learning records under DSHS statutes became obsolete.

Summary of Bill:

The list of specified personal information not disclosable (addresses, telephone numbers, personal electronic mail addresses, social security numbers, emergency contact and date of birth information) contained in files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, or welfare recipients is removed. A new exemption for personal information contained in any file maintained by the Department of Early Learning for a child enrolled in licensed child care is added. The term "participant" is replaced with "child enrolled" pertaining to exempted personal information for those taking part in a public or nonprofit program serving or pertaining to children, adolescents, or students.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of the session in which the bill is passed.
