SENATE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS

Staff: Samuel Brown (786-7470)

Background: The Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA) requires that all meetings of the governing body of a public agency be open to the public and all persons must be allowed to attend. For the purposes of OPMA, a public agency is defined broadly and includes, but is not limited to, any state board, commission, department, education institution, agency, local government, and special purposes district. A governing body is defined as a multi-member board, commission, committee, council, or other policy or rulemaking body of a public agency or any committee thereof that is acting on behalf of the public agency.

Public agencies must publicly identify the time and location of regular meetings, but are not required to provide agendas for regular meetings. OPMA requires that the agency provide at least 24 hours' written notice to the members of the governing body and media representatives who filed a written request for notices of special meetings. This notice must specify the time and place of the meeting and the business to be transacted at the meeting.

Summary of Bill: Public agencies with governing bodies must post meeting agendas online at least 24 hours in advance of each regular meeting. Any public agency that does not have a
