7 state, or as parens patriae on behalf of persons residing in the state,
8 against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein 9 prohibited or declared to be unlawful; and the attorney general, if the 10 prevailing party, may, in the discretion of the court, recover the 11 costs of said action including a reasonable (~~attorney's~~) attorneys' 12 fee.

13 (2) The court may make such additional orders or judgments as may 14 be necessary to restore to any person in interest any moneys or 15 property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of 16 any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful.

17 (3) Upon a violation of RCW 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 18 19.86.060, the court may also make such additional orders or judgments 19 as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any moneys or

1 property, real or personal, which may have been acquired, regardless of 2 whether such person purchased or transacted for goods or services
3 directly with the defendant or indirectly through resellers. The court

14 affected by reason of a violation of this chapter, and whose action
15 arises directly out of such person's status as a provider or owner, may 16 bring an action against a person who violates this chapter to enjoin 17 further violations and to recover either actual damages or one hundred 18 thousand dollars per violation, whichever is greater.

19 (2) In an action under subsection (1) of this section, a court may 20 increase the damages up to three times the damages allowed under 21 subsection (1) of this section if the defendant has engaged in a 22 pattern and practice of violating this chapter. The court may also 23 award costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party, 24 except that in an action brought by the attorney general, costs and 26 as prevailing party, and may not be awarded to the defendant.

27 (3) The amount of damages determined under subsection (1) or (2) of 28 this section may not exceed two million dollars.
