

SENATE RESOLUTION

By Senators Parlette, Fraser, Roach, Holmquist Newbry, Nelson, Kohl-Welles, Becker, Eide, Hargrove, Chase, Ericksen, Tom, Brown, King, O'Ban, Rolfes, Rivers, Schoesler, Conway, and Dammeier

WHEREAS, Washington has a rich history of being a champion for women's rights and a national leader in promoting progress for women; and

WHEREAS, In 1910, Washington distinguished itself by becoming the fifth state in the nation and the first on the Pacific Coast to permanently enact women's suffrage; and

WHEREAS, It took an additional 10 years, but Washington's action inspired and reinvigorated the national suffrage movement, which culminated in the passage of the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution in 1920, assuring nearly all women in the nation the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, Washington's history would look very different today had it not been for the courageous women and men who were willing to speak out against the status quo in pursuit of equal rights for all; and

WHEREAS, Susan B. Anthony was a catalyst for suffrage legislation and spoke before members of the Washington State Territorial Legislature in Olympia on October 19, 1871; and

WHEREAS, Over the past 100 years, women have made significant marks on the history of the state and the legislative process through their hard work, effective leadership, and broad influence to transform economic, cultural, political, family, and social issues in Washington; and

WHEREAS, In 1926, Bertha Landes became the first woman to lead a major American city as mayor of Seattle, and gender barriers continued to crumble when Belle Reeves became Washington's first female secretary of state; and

WHEREAS, In 1977, Dixy Lee Ray became Washington's first female governor, and only two years later, Senator Jeannette Hayner became the first woman to serve as the Senate Majority Leader in the Washington Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Washington was the first state to have two female U.S. senators, Patty Murray and Maria Cantwell, and a female governor, Christine Gregoire, at the same time; and

WHEREAS, Today Chief Justice Barbara Madsen leads the state Supreme Court, where a majority of the justices are women, and Kim Wyman serves as Washington's 15th Secretary of State and is the second female to ever hold that office in Washington's 125-year history; and

WHEREAS, 18 women now serve in the Washington State Senate, Senator Pam Roach (since 1991), Senator Karen Fraser (1993), Senator Rosemary McAuliffe (1993), Senator Jeanne Kohl-Welles (1994), Senator Tracey Eide (1999), Senator Karen Keiser (2001), Senator Linda Evans Parlette (2001), Senator Janéa Holmquist Newbry (2007), Senator Randi Becker (2009), Senator Sharon Nelson (2010), Senator Maralyn Chase (2011), Senator Christine Rolfes (2011), Senator Ann Rivers (2013), Senator Barbara Bailey (2013), Senator Annette Cleveland (2013), Senator Jeannie Darneille (2013), Senator Sharon Brown (2013), and Senator Jan Angel (2013);

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate applaud these women, and many others who have served Washington diligently and boldly, for changing the course of history and promoting the full equality of women; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize that Washington has consistently been a national leader in the percentage of women serving in the Legislature, honor the legacy of women leaders in service to the State of Washington, and celebrate their role in our democratic process over the past 100 years.

I, Hunter G. Goodman, Secretary of the Senate, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Senate Resolution 8712, adopted by the Senate
March 8, 2014

HUNTER G. GOODMAN
