

HB 1461 - DIGEST

Requires the department of labor and industries to include information regarding employees' rights related to union membership and dues in certain workplace posters.

Requires the public employment relations commission to develop language to educate and advise employees regarding their rights related to union membership and dues and transmit the language to the department of labor and industries for inclusion in the workplace poster.