

HB 1475 - DIGEST

Provides a process for school district boards of directors to waive certain state education requirements when the local board determines it is necessary to do so.