

HB 1992 - DIGEST

Directs the liquor control board in consultation with the department of ecology, in evaluating marijuana production methods, to study and examine the environmental impacts associated with the various methods of producing marijuana.