

HB 2216 - DIGEST

Encourages each school district to include information on local history in any course in Washington state history and government.