

HB 2725 - DIGEST

(SUBSTITUTED FOR - SEE 1ST SUB)

Allows an immediate family member of a person with a mental disability to petition the superior court for review of a designated mental health professional's decision if the designated mental health professional decides not to file a petition for initial detention under the involuntary treatment act.