

HB 2769 - DIGEST

Provides a sales and use tax exemption on eligible server equipment and power infrastructure installed in eligible computer data centers, charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to installing eligible service equipment, and on construction, installation, repair, alteration, or improvement of eligible power infrastructures.