

SB 5555 - DIGEST

Establishes the Washington state renewable energy space heating act.

Encourages the increased use and production of densified biomass wood pellets and the development and installation of densified biomass wood pellet space heating and water heating devices.