Background:

A public access pass is required to be displayed on any vehicle accessing most lands managed by the State Parks and Recreation Commission (Commission) or by the departments of Natural Resources or Fish and Wildlife (state recreation agencies). The pass must either be a Discover Pass or a Vehicle Access Pass. A Discover Pass costs $30 for an annual pass or $10 for a day-use permit. The Vehicle Access Pass is available free of charge to anyone who purchases certain hunting or fishing licenses and only allows access to lands managed by the Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW).

Revenue from the sales of Discover Passes and Vehicle Access Passes are deposited into the Recreation Pass Account and distributed to the state recreation agencies according to a set formula. Of the first $71 million of recreation pass sales, 84 percent is distributed to the Commission and the remainder is equally divided between the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and the WDFW. All sales above $71 million are distributed equally among the three state recreation agencies.

The Commission may designate up to 12 days during which state parks can be legally accessed without having to display a Discover Pass or day-use permit. At least three of the pass-free days at state parks must be on weekends and, when practicable, timed with similar free access days offered by the National Park Service.

Summary of Second Substitute Bill:

The Director of the Commission (Director) may designate specific days when a recreation site or land, or all recreational sites and lands, may be open for access without a Discover Pass or day-use permit. In choosing these days, the Director must consult with the DNR and the WDFW.

The free access days must be designated to showcase state parks or other recreation sites and lands and to provide equitable access for persons with limited incomes. However, the designation of free access days must be arranged to not significantly impact state finances. In choosing the free access days, the Director must consider timing the days with free days offered by the National Park Service, the commemoration of grand openings at state recreation sites and lands, local community celebrations, and other events, holidays, or days of commemoration.

The limit on only offering up to 12 free access days is removed, as is the limit on free access days only applying to state parks.

Second Substitute Bill Compared to Original Bill:

The original bill required, when practicable, the Commission to pair free state park entry days with local community events and required the Commission to consult with interested local parks and recreation directors when establishing free state park entry days to help identify planned local community events.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date of Second Substitute Bill: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of the session in which the bill is passed.
