As of January 15, 2016

Title: An act relating to clarifying, and making department of financial institutions technical regulatory changes to, the securities act of Washington.

Brief Description: Addressing the securities act of Washington.

Sponsors: Senators Benton, Mullet and Angel; by request of Department of Financial Institutions.

Brief History:

Committee Activity: Financial Institutions & Insurance: 1/14/16.

---

SENATE COMMITTEE ON COMMERCE & LABOR

Staff: Shani Bauer (786-7468)

Background: A security is an interest or investment in a business venture in which the investment is risked with the expectation of some valuable benefit to the investor. Under both state and federal law, all securities offerings must be registered with state and federal regulators, or exempt from registration under one of a variety of specified exemptions. The Securities Act of Washington sets out the requirements for registration and the various exemptions applicable under state law. The Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) is responsible for administering the Securities Act and regulating investment activities under the act.

In 2014, the Legislature adopted an exemption from registration under the Securities Act for certain small securities offerings. This exemption is more commonly referred to as the crowdfunding exemption.

Summary of Bill: The time period for appealing the entry of an order by DFI is changed from 15 days to 20 days, to be consistent with the Administrative Procedures Act.

Statutory references in the chapter listing exemptions have been updated to include the exemption for crowdfunding adopted in 2014. The director's authority to deny, revoke, or condition an exemption as it pertains to a security is extended to the crowdfunding exemption.
