Background: The Department of Licensing (DOL) is responsible for licensing all motor vehicle dealers operating in Washington.

Wholesale motor vehicle dealers. Current law defines a wholesale motor vehicle dealer as a vehicle dealer who buys and sells other than at retail.

A wholesale vehicle dealer must have office facilities in a commercial building within Washington State, and all storage facilities for inventory shall be listed with the DOL, and must meet local zoning and land use ordinances. A wholesale vehicle dealer shall maintain a telecommunications system. An exterior sign visible from the nearest street must identify the business name and the nature of the business. sells vehicles for the purpose of making a profit, or sells vehicles that are not registered to the seller. A motor vehicle dealer must have an established place of business that includes a publicly available commercial space open at least five days a week, with signage, located in a commercially zoned area with a business telephone listing in the local directory. Required books and records must be kept at the place of business.

Before a motor vehicle dealer may be issued a license, they must have:

- filed with the DOL a surety bond worth $30,000;
- shown proof of either owning or renting a business site;
- submitted an application of a business license to the Department of Revenue;
- submitted a source of funds statement;
- submitted a personal criminal history statement with a fingerprint card for each member of the business; and
- submitted proof of required training, if selling only used vehicles.

Summary of Engrossed Substitute Bill: The definition for wholesale vehicle dealer is retained in statute and further clarified as a dealer who buys and sells vehicles to other Washington licensed dealers.

Wholesale vehicle dealers must have office facilities within this state with no more than two other wholesale or retail vehicle dealers in the same building.

The bill would go in effect immediately following adjournment.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Committee/Commission/Task Force Created: No.

Effective Date: The bill contains an emergency clause and takes effect immediately.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony on Original Bill: PRO: This is an unusual issue. In a period of a week, over 100 motor vehicle dealers licenses were issued. The law as it is now allows for illegal dealings and fraud. This is a consumer protection issue. The FBI and DEA are interested in this. This permissibility essentially allows for the laundering of vehicles.

Persons Testifying on Original Bill: PRO: Rick Jensen, Dealers Auto Auctions NW; Anthony Sermoniti, Department of Licensing.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: No one.
