1 AN ACT Relating to the employment antiretaliation act; amending
2 RCW 49.46.100 and 39.12.010; reenacting and amending RCW 49.46.010
3 and 49.48.082; adding new sections to chapter 49.46 RCW; adding a new 4 section to chapter 49.12 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 49.48
5 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 39.12 RCW; adding new sections to 6 chapter 49.52 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that many workers 9 are unable to exercise their wage and hour rights because of fear of 10 adverse action or actual adverse action by unscrupulous employers.
11 Employers should not gain a competitive advantage against law abiding 12 business by retaliating or discriminating against their employees. No 13 employee should have to fear adverse action simply for engaging in 14 rights the state of Washington has deemed so important that they are 15 protected by law. It is in the public interest of the state of 16 Washington that employees be able to report concerns to their 17 employers without fear of retaliation or discrimination. The 18 legislature finds that strong, clear, and effective protections for 19 employees will help address the problems of employer retaliation.

1 Sec. 2. RCW 49.46.010 and 2013 c 141 s 1 are each reenacted and 2 amended to read as follows:

30 or made a complaint, or the employer believes an employee has 31 informed any other person or made a complaint, including to the 39 aggrieved by the violation. Subject to (a)(ii) of this subsection,

1 statutory damages must not be less than one thousand dollars and not

3 engaged in a pattern or practice of violations, in which case the 4 statutory damages must be not less than ten thousand dollars and not 5 more than twenty-five thousand dollars per individual;

6 (ii) If an employee or former employee is the individual subject 7 to adverse action, the court shall award the greater of:

26 location or locations where the adverse action occurred;

27 (ii) For a second violation, the court may order the appropriate 28 government agencies to suspend all licenses that are held by the 29 violating party for a period of up to thirty days. The licenses that 30 are subject to suspension are all licenses held by the violating 31 party specific to the business location or locations where the

34 government agencies to suspend all licenses that are held by the 35 violating party for a period of up to ninety days. The licenses that 36 are subject to suspension are all licenses held by the violating 37 party specific to the business location or locations where the 38 adverse action occurred.
