

HB 1946 - DIGEST

Specifies that each hospital is responsible for payment of a Washington wellness trust obligation as determined by the department of health pursuant to the following calculation: A hospital's obligation shall be determined annually by calculating six percent of the hospital's reported revenue to the department of health less any reported charity care and community benefits reported by the hospital for that same year.

Creates the Washington wellness trust account.