

HB 2201 - DIGEST

Requires the department of revenue to create a unique reporting code for interest derived from investments or loans by banking businesses, security businesses, lending businesses, and other financial businesses.

Requires tax collections derived from interest on investments or loans by financial firms to be deposited into the education legacy trust account.