

HB 2308 - DIGEST

Addresses the approval, by the department of natural resources and local governments, of an application for forest practices involving commercial timber harvesting on land located within the boundaries of a master planned resort.