

HB 2752 - DIGEST

Establishes the protection of the rights of religious exercise and conscience from government discrimination act.

Prohibits the state from taking any discriminatory action against a person, wholly or partially on the basis that the person believes, speaks, or acts in accordance with a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction.