

SB 6202 - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Transfers the duties of the employer support for guard and reserve ombuds to the adjutant general of the state military department with regard to the primary responsibility for resolving disputes with employers who are alleged to have discriminated against an employee, who is a reserve or national guard member, because of active duty military service.