11 (iii) A person working as an individual provider who only provides 12 respite services and works less than three hundred hours in any 13 calendar year, unless covered by subsection (1)(b) of this section"

14

EFFECT: Applies the 14-hour training requirement to individual providers who provide respite care services only for individuals with developmental disabilities receiving services under the developmental disabilities title of law.

Restores the 35-hour training requirement for individual providers who only provide respite services and who work less than 300 hours in a year (other than those who provide respite care services only for individuals with development disabilities).

Corrects a cross-reference to the statute establishing the training partnership.
