Mandated reporting requirements are also extended to the Department of Corrections personnel, guardians ad litem, court appointed special advocates, any person in an official supervisory capacity with a profit or nonprofit organization, administrative, academic or athletic departmental employees of institutions of higher learning, or any adult who has reasonable cause to believe that a child who resides with them is a victim of abuse or neglect. Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) Investigations have revealed that mandatory reporters had knowledge of a child sex crime, and it was unclear whether these individuals were aware of their responsibilities under mandatory reporting laws. This is a simple bill that will improve the effectiveness of our mandatory reporter laws. The failure of mandatory reporters to report abuse and neglect have contributed to the death of children. There may be many sex offenders in the community who have offended without being reported. Posting the requirements of mandatory reporters clarifies their responsibilities and makes the job of law enforcement easier.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: Representative Hayes, prime sponsor; Byron Manering, Brigid Collins Family Support Center; and John Snaza, Thurston County Sheriff's Office.
