Background:

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

The Department of Financial Institutions (DFI), through its Securities Division, is responsible for the regulation of the securities market in this state. The Securities Division collects various fees for activities such as the registration of securities, licensing fees for securities broker-dealers, advisors and salespersons, filing fees, and other administrative fees. The fees range from $5 for a duplicate license to calculated fees based upon the securities initial issue price.

The Securities Division must deposit 13 percent of all money received, except as otherwise required to be deposited into the securities prosecution fund, into an account in the custody of the State Treasurer. Money deposited shall be used for costs associated with the proper regulation of individuals and entities as required by the Securities Act including:

- supplies and equipment;
- salaries, wages, and utilities;
- reserve funds; and
- other incidental costs as necessary.

Summary of Bill:

The DFI, through rulemaking, may increase fees specified in RCW 21.20.340, by no more than $15 after a finding that the increase in the fee is necessary to defray the cost of administering the Securities Act.

All money collected that is attributable to the increase in fees implemented by rule must be deposited into the account held in the custody of the State Treasurer for the purpose of administering the Securities Act.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of the session in which the bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) The DFI self-funds its regulatory activities through the licensing fees paid by the licensees. The Securities Division fees were last updated between 1965 and 1988, and the fee amounts are not enough to fund the Securities Division's regulatory activities; however, DFI's overall revenue has been sufficient to backstop the fund. The goal is to balance the accounts, move the Securities Division to a positive fund balance, and ensure that other regulated groups are not subsidizing another group for purposes of regulation.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: Representative Steve Kirby, prime sponsor; and Bill Beatty and Faith Anderson, Department of Financial Institutions.
