HOUSE COMMITTEE ON STATE GOVERNMENT, ELECTIONS & INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 9 members: Representatives Hudgins, Chair; Dolan, Vice Chair; Koster, Ranking Minority Member; Volz, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Appleton, Gregerson, Irwin, Kraft and Pellicciotti.

Staff: Megan Palchak (786-7105).

Background:

The Legislature may approve names for new or existing buildings owned by the state, based on recommendations from the State Capitol Committee and the Director of the Department of Enterprise Services (DES), with advice from the Capitol Campus Design Advisory Committee, within certain limitations. New or existing buildings may be named, or renamed, after an individual who has had a significant role in Washington history, or other criteria specified in state law. When naming or renaming buildings and other spaces, consideration must be given to:

- any disparity that exists with respect to the gender of the persons after whom spaces are named;
- diversity of human achievement; and
- diversity of the state's citizenry and history.

Representative Helen Sommers first joined the Washington State House of Representatives (House) in 1972 and was among 12 women actively serving as one of more than 90 members of the House. Prior to retiring in 2009, Representative Sommers chaired five committees, including State Government, Revenue, Higher Education, Capitol Budget, and Appropriations.

In 2013 the Legislature directed the Department of Enterprise Services, via Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5035, to initiate construction of the new state office building commonly referred to as the "1063 Building," located at 1063 Capitol Way South in Olympia, Washington.

Summary of Bill:

Acknowledging Representative Helen Sommers' service, the Legislature approves the DES to place the name "The Helen Sommers Building" on the newly constructed 1063 Building.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony:

(In support) Many people are interested in naming the new building, overlooking the capitol campus, the Helen Sommers Building. Representative Helen Sommers admired the capitol grounds during her many years of service.

(Opposed) None.

Persons Testifying: Yona Makowski.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
