Committee Activity: State Government: 2/15/17.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Prohibits any rule or policy adopted by a state agency after July 1, 2017 from being enforced unless it is adopted pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), codified in the Washington Administrative Code (WAC), and has been ratified by act of the Legislature.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON STATE GOVERNMENT

Staff: Melissa Van Gorkom (786-7491)

Background: The APA details procedures that state agencies are required to follow when adopting rules. Under the APA, a rule includes an agency order, directive, or regulation of general applicability that:

- could result in a penalty or sanction;
- establishes a process for agency hearings;
- addresses qualifications or requirements relating to benefits or privileges conferred by law; and
- addresses qualifications or standards for commercial activity or professional licenses professions.

In order to adopt a rule, the APA generally requires that an agency:

- provide an opportunity for the public to comment on the proposed rules, both in writing and at a hearing.

Summary of Bill: After July 1, 2017, a state agency may not enforce a rule or policy until it has been adopted under the APA, codified in the WAC, and ratified by an act of the Legislature.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Creates Committee/Commission/Task Force that includes Legislative members: No.

Effective Date: The bill contains an emergency clause and takes effect on July 1, 2017.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: The bill requires that a rule must be run through the Legislature first. Administrative law has thrown legislative intent on its head. The legislative intent and authority granted to agencies has gone unchecked causing a domino effect from the agency creating the law, to local authority implementing it, and the citizen is impacted. This means that the smallest individual is held to the same standards as large agencies, which puts an undue burden on land owners in our state. This bill adds another layer of accountability and is a good step in the right direction to help with regulatory reform.
