1            AN ACT Relating to deficiency claims after auction of a private 2 property vehicle impound; and amending RCW 46.55.140.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4            Sec. 1. RCW 46.55.140 and 2010 c 161 s 1121 are each amended to 5 read as follows:

6            (1) A registered tow truck operator who has a valid and signed 7 impoundment authorization has a lien upon the impounded vehicle for 8 services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle, unless 9 the impoundment is determined to have been invalid. The lien does not 10 apply to personal property in or upon the vehicle that is not 11 permanently attached to or is not an integral part of the vehicle 12 except for items of personal property registered or titled with the 13 department. The registered tow truck operator also has a deficiency 14 claim against the registered owner of the vehicle for services 15 provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle not to exceed the 16 sum of (~~five~~) eight hundred dollars after deduction of the amount 17 bid at auction, and for vehicles of over ten thousand pounds gross 18 vehicle weight, the operator has a deficiency claim of (~~one~~) two 19 thousand two hundred fifty dollars after deduction of the amount bid 20 at auction, unless the impound is determined to be invalid. The 21 dollar thresholds established in this subsection must be adjusted

1 every three years to reflect the percentage change for that three-
2 year period in the consumer price index for all urban consumers
3 published by the bureau of labor statistics of the United States
4 department of labor. The limitation on towing and storage deficiency
5 claims does not apply to an impound directed by a law enforcement 6 officer. In no case may the cost of the auction or a buyer's fee be 7 added to the amount charged for the vehicle at the auction, the 8 vehicle's lien, or the overage due. A registered owner who has 9 completed and filed with the department the report of sale as 10 provided for in RCW 46.12.650 and has timely and properly filed the 11 report of sale is relieved of liability under this section. The 12 person named as the new owner of the vehicle on the timely and 13 properly filed report of sale shall assume liability under this 14 section.

15 (2) Any person who tows, removes, or otherwise disturbs any 16 vehicle parked, stalled, or otherwise left on privately owned or 17 controlled property, and any person owning or controlling the private 18 property, or either of them, are liable to the owner or operator of a 19 vehicle, or each of them, for consequential and incidental damages 20 arising from any interference with the ownership or use of the 21 vehicle which does not comply with the requirements of this chapter.
